

LIST'NING ON SOME RADIO

From Ziegfeld Follies of 1922

Lyrics: Gene Buck; Music, Victor Herbert, Louis A Hirsch, Dave Stamper

A favor would you please bestow? Please can I use your radio?

IF you would be so kind, I want to try to find the one I love.

Since we parted I'm lonely and broken hearted

I know she has a wireless phone

Perhaps she too is all alone.

I wonder if she's blue,

Maybe she's yearning too.

By radio, I can reach her

Will you let me beseech her?

CHORUS:

Please wireless wave, Just behalf while I rave,

For I crave just a moment or so.

O'er the radio, I want the world to know, how I love you.

Dearie, hello.

It's not private I know, but I miss you so, I love you so.

Of the millions that hear,

I may find you dear.
